

Voice of the People for Nov. 1, 2009

Health reform

Manhattan: As a member of the New York State Health Underwriters Association, I want to be sure that any tax dollars invested in health reform will go where they can do the greatest good. I was stunned to learn that the Senate Finance Committee's bill would cost $829 billion but only minimally increase the number of insured Americans. Our lawmakers need to rethink what they're doing.

Mickey Lyons
Manhattan